It is with much regret, says the Intelligencer, that we find the annexed obituary notice in a Panama paper. Mr. Wallach, whose death it announces, was the youngest son of the late respected RICHARD WALLACH, esq., of this city, and his early decease will be lamented by a large circle of esteem ed relatives and friends:

"OBTULARY.—With no common feelings of regret we are called upon to announce the sudden death of Mr. Romens Wallaci, for some three years past a resident citizen of Panama. Mr. W. was connected by marriage with one of the most respectable native families of this city, and has sver borne an excellent reputation, and enjoyed the confidence of a large circle of both native and foreign residents. He had suffered fill health for some months past, and had been evidently sinking gradually. His death, however, was very sudden; for we remember having exchanged a few words with him in the street, on Sunday afternoon, and on rising in the morning we were informed of his decesse. Mr. Wallach was generous, capable, and industrious; but he had been singularly unfortunate, and like many others, he could not be induced to resuscitate his health by prolonged absence from business. He was attached to the house of Hurtado & Co. at the time of his death."

Barritville, Allegary County, (Md.,)

To Messes, Mortimer & Mowbras;

Dear Sirs: in justice to Dr. Hampton's Vegetable Tincture, I wish to inform you that I was taken sick on the 3d day of January last, with an affection of the stomach, bowels, and kidneys. I was attended by four eminent physicians for more than two months—all to little or no effect. I had some knowledge of the great virtue in Hampton's Tincture from one bottle which my wife had taken two years since.

ture from one bottle which my wife had taken two years since.

I came to the conclusion that I would take no more medicine from my physicians, but try the Tincture; and I am happy to inform you! had not taken it two days before I fell its powerful influence upon my stomach. I have continued using the Tincture, and am now able to leave my room, and can eat any common diet without much inconvenience or pressure on my stomach.

The afflicted or beir friends are delly visiting me, to learn of the great virtue there is in this Tincture of Hampton's. I expect to send you several certificates in a few days—one especially from a young lady who has been confined to her room twelve mooths, with a disease of the head, affecting the brain.

hundreds who have felt its healing powers bear the same testimony.

Baltimore, July 6, 1852.

Messrs. Mortimer & Mowbray. Gents: Last September I was attacked with arysipelas, from which a dreadful uler formed on my right leg. Getting better of this, last November I took a deep cold, which led to what my physician told me was billous pleurisy, which left me with a constant, deeply seated, and painful cough, having no rest day or night, and constantly throwing up from my lungs a thick matter. I became much emaciated, growing weaker every day, and keeping my bed the greater part of the time. My friends thought I had the consumption, and at times I was also of the same opinion. At this stage of my disease, after having tried many and various remedies, without success, a friend advised me to try DR. HAMPTON'S VEGETABLE TINCTURE, sid procured me a bottle, which I now pronounce the greatest medicine I ever took. Before I had taken half the contents of one bottle I felt much improved; and now, having taken but two bottes, my cough and pains have entirely left me, and I am enabled to attend to business. I can truly say that, with the blessing of God, I have been restored to the health I now enjoy by the use of this most invaluable medicine.

Yours,

Were there not real virtue in this wonderful medicine, could it perform the astonishing cures made by it?

Nortamero Co., April 13, 1852.

Messre. Tyler & Adair: I have been affilicted with Rheumatism, at times, from my twelfth year; I will be fifty years of age the 18th of this month; the attacks were at times so severe as to render me helpless; I have tried various remedies to very little effect. Last October I was attacked in my shoulders, sides, back, and hips; I could not rest, day or night; I could not nove any part of my body without crying with pain; at this time I also tried many remedies, internal and external, without receiving any relief; I was at last advised to try HAMPTON'S VEGETABLE TINCTURE; before I had taken one bottle of which I felt much better, and as I continued taking it I felt strength coming into my back and limbs, and my stomach strengthened and revived every way; I have taken five bottles, and am much better than I ever expected to be. I intend to use it whenever I need it, and would recommend it to the affilieted, believing it unequalled.

Yours,

ELIZABETH BAGWELL.

WESLEY AND HIS COADJUTORS.

SELDOM have I taken up a book of biography with which I have been so well pleased and really profited as with Wesley and his Coadjutors, by Prof. Larrabee. Those pure pages sparkle like diamonds, with strange as well as beautiful incidents, touching in turn every chord of the human heart, and arousing its latent energies to deeds of noble daring. Wesley is exhibited as he really was, a most wonderful man; wonderful principally as an agent of Providence in reviving pure religion in the world.

The second volume opens with Charles Wesley, that prince of lyric poets, who is made to pass before the reader so well-defined that he seems to see his form and hear his voice, and be thrilled with his sublime hymns, a rich legacy left to the Church in all after time.

Whitefield, the peerless orator and devoted Christian, next appears, with his matchless powers, arousing Great Britain and America with an eloquence and unction that literally bore down all before it, turning the people to God by thousands, till from the most degraded—degraded because foreaken of their religious teachers—plants of right-cousness were seen springing up and adorning the garden of the Lord. John Fletcher closes the list of notable worthlies in the two volumes before us, and every way worthy is be to do it. He is made to rase sione in his own incom-
